28-29 May, 2018

Venue: Parliament of Georgia (Plenary Session Hall, III floor, B block,
8 Shota Rustaveli Ave. 0118, Tbilisi) &
Radisson Blu Iveria Hotel (Rose Revolution Square I, 0108, Tbilisi)

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to invite you to the High Level International Conference devoted to Governmental and Scientific Perspectives on the implementation of Sustainable Development Goals of 2030 Agenda.

In order to underline the imperatives of the 2030 Agenda the Parliament of Georgia in cooperation with the Administration of the Government of Georgia as well as their partners and friends aim to highlight and discuss challenges and lessons learnt in the early implementation phase. With the overall theme “Country experiences in implementing the 2030 Agenda” the Conference will serve as a platform for participants from various countries and stakeholder backgrounds to discuss the current state, challenges and advancements related to the implementation process and ensuring an inter-sectoral and inter-disciplinary exchange.

In due course the final agenda as well as relevant administrative information will be sent out to registered participants.

We kindly ask you to complete your registration (not later than 20 May, 2018) by following this link:
