

EASL International Liver Congress™ 2018 – Poster and ePoster information

All posters will be displayed both as paper poster on a single day and ePoster during the entire congress.

Only landscape format if allowed: dimension 140cm x 90cm: You will find the guidelines for poster and ePoster here.

Note that any changes related to your abstract need to be sent to the abstract office by 5 February 2018 at ILC.abstracts@easloffice.eu. No changes will be possible after that date.

Your poster number is designated by 3 letters and 3 numbers. The day of your presentation corresponds to the first 3 letters and the poster board number corresponds to the 3 last digits of the poster number. Example: THU-001 = Thursday, board number 001

ePosters

You are required to submit your poster file that will be used for both ePoster and printing on the poster submission website. For this, you will receive a notification on 15 February providing guidelines and deadlines relating to ePoster preparation and presentation from the company poster provider who has been mandated by EASL.

ePosters will be made available on:

- e-Poster stations during the congress (available to all onsite delegates)
- LiverTree™. During and after the congress (e-learning portal, available to EASL members).

Paper Posters

Paper posters will be on display from 9:00 to 17:00 in the exhibition area (Hall 7.2). Presenters should stand next to their poster during the morning and afternoon coffee breaks and at lunch time for informal discussions.

EASL is responsible for:

- The free printing of your paper poster
- The free delivery to the Paris Convention Centre
- The free hanging and display of your abstract on poster board in the poster area

ePoster Connect

We are pleased to inform you that we will have this year once again the ePoster connect feature on the Congress app that will allow delegates to connect with you to set up a meeting to discuss your poster.

Delegates will be able to submit requests to poster presenters and arrange a 'face-to-face' meeting the ePoster screens area.

Confirmation of attendance and registration to the congress for the presenting author is mandatory.

If you are unable to attend the ILC or you are not the presenting author, please advise the EASL Office at ILC.abstracts@easloffice.eu.

If you have not already registered and paid your registration fees you are requested to do so online via the congress website's registration page.

Please use the special code below if you have not been awarded a young investigator bursary before 5 February 2018 to benefit from an early registration fee.

Special Code: ILC18-EARLY

For any questions regarding registration please contact: registration.ilc@congrex.com

Only abstracts of participants who have confirmed their participation and paid their fees will be included in the scientific programme.

We encourage you to book your accommodation promptly here, as availability may be limited in some hotels.

We look forward to this exciting congress and thank you again for your important contribution.
