
Invitation for the Georgian-Norwegian Collaborative in Public Health Mid-Term Conference May 5 and 6.

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of The Arctic University of Norway, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the mid-term conference of the project 'Georgian-Norwegian Collaborative in Public Health (GeNoC-PH)'.

The conference is being held in Telavi at Lopota Lake Resort & Spa Hotel from May 4th to May 7th. The preliminary agenda and further conference details are available in the attached files.

I hope that you will attend the conference, which will provide you with an opportunity to discuss current scientific issues, meet colleagues and plan future steps.

If you have any questions about the conference, please do not hesitate to ask (tinatin.manjavidze@uit.no).

Your presence at this conference is important to us. We look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Erik Eik Anda

Associate Professor
