Survey assessing the regulatory barriers for some new drugs for treatment of multidrug-resistant TB (MDR-TB)

To: Ms Hanne Bak Pedersen,
Programme Manager, Health Technologies and Pharmaceuticals

I hereby provide Ministry of Health approval for the analysis and publication of the data reported in the Survey assessing the regulatory barriers for some new drugs for treatment of multidrug-resistant TB (MDR-TB).

I understand that these data will be included in a report assessing the regulatory barriers for some new drugs for treatment of multidrug-resistant TB (MDR-TB) being prepared by the World Health Organization.

I agree that these data may also be used in all future editions, in all languages and formats (print and non-print, including electronic) and in other publications involving WHO.

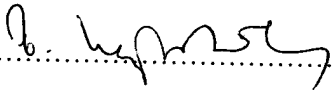

The transfer of the information to WHO shall not convey any intellectual property rights to WHO.

The Ministry of Health has the full legal right to share these data with WHO for the purpose of this letter and that such data does not violate any intellectual property rights of any third party. WHO will accept no liability or responsibility on the grounds that the data is in violation of the above warranty. WHO will transfer any claims in that regard to the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Health will deal directly with such third party claims.

This letter is an administrative arrangement between WHO and the Government of Georgia.

1. Any difference of interpretation or application of this letter will be resolved through consultations or negotiations between the duly authorized officials of WHO and the Ministry of Health.

2. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by WHO Europe under national or international law and/or as submitting WHO Europe to any national court or jurisdiction.
