Mr. Vyacheslav Shylo
Deputy Minister of Health of the Republic of Belarus

Dear Mr. Shylo

First of all, let me extend my sincere gratitude for cooperation and continued support.

With regard to your letter dated 14/08/2014-N3-1-42/4559, we would like to express our willingness to share experience and best practices in the field of Organ transplantation; child and maternal health; children oncology, neurosurgery, rehabilitation etc. It will be a great opportunity for us to discuss professional development of Georgian physicians / nurses and enhance their experience.

It is worth mentioning that the LEPL Social Service Agency carries out the procurement of medicines for the state program "Provision of Medicines for Patients with Chronic Diseases" Republic of Belarus can participate in the tender via www.procurement.gov.ge. At this stage, the purchase of medicines is completed by 2017, however, the LEPL Social Service Agency plans to purchase pharmaceutical products this year as well. Since the tender is open and the potential provider can participate from any country, we hope that the pharmaceutical enterprises of the Republic of Belarus will be interested in participation.

Once again please except the assurance of my highest consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Deputy Minister

Zaza Sopromadze
