Dear Sir/Madam,

The World Health Organization in collaboration with the Imperial College London / WHO Collaborating Centre for Public Health Education and Training organize a study tour for selected high level experts in the area of public health. All experts are Georgian citizens.

The study tour organised by the WHO Collaborating Centre for Public Health Education and Training will equip health professionals with the knowledge of the UK NHS system in the wider context of Public Health functions; with a focus on public health and its delivery direct and through primary care. The participants will be able to learn about the complex function at national, regional and local level; its organisation and management; and its link medical health service, primary care, the community, voluntary agencies and international organisations. They will also learn about the emergency preparedness and responses at national and local level, public health monitoring, public health training and research.

The participants of the study tour are as follows:

1. Amiran Gamkrelidze, MD, PhD, Professor, Director General; National Center for Disease Control and Public Health (NCDC)
2. Ana Kasradze, MPH, Head of Public Health Preparedness and Response Division; NCDC
3. Ana Aslanikashvili, MD, MPH, Senior Specialist, Division of HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis, Tuberculosis and STIs; Department of Communicable Diseases, NCDC
4. Marina Darakhvelidze, MD, Head of Health Care Department; Ministry of Labour, Health and Social Affairs
5. Sofiko Belkania, Head of HR Management and International Relations Department; Ministry of Labour, Health and Social Affairs
6. Irma Khonelidze, MD, MPA, Deputy Director General, Head of Global Fund unit; NCDC
7. Giorgi Kuchukhidze, MD, MPH, Program Manager, Global Fund TB Program in Georgia (GEO-T-NCDC); NCDC

The World Health Organization will cover the costs for the participants 1-5 (as follows), while The Global Funds (as agreed with the NCDC) will cover the costs of participants 6-7.
