The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to refer to the Roster of Experts maintained by the Security Council Subsidiary Organs Branch. As previously described, the Roster has been developed by the Secretariat to facilitate the recruitment of qualified specialists, on short notice, to serve for limited durations on sanctions monitoring groups, teams and panels (hereafter “expert panels”) established by the Security Council to enhance the implementation of mandatory measures (sanctions) imposed under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations.

The Secretariat invites Member States to nominate individuals for consideration who possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, including three years of field experience, in sanctions monitoring and investigations with a focus on one or more of the relevant areas of expertise:

- armed groups
- border control/customs
- conventional arms
- counter-terrorism
- finance
- sexual and gender-based violence
- humanitarian affairs/human rights
- international law
- narcotics
- natural resources
- regional issues
- transportation (maritime/air)
- weapons of mass destruction/non-proliferation

Roster members will be eligible for consideration when expert positions become available. The appointment duration is in accordance with the terms of the mandate of the expert panel. Appointments include competitive remuneration, assessed based on the expert’s level of experience. For further information on expert roles, please visit:

<https://www.un.org/sc/suborg/en/sanctions/expert-roster>

The curricula vitae (CVs) of all nominees, including contact information, should be forwarded to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political Affairs, United Nations, through the following e-mail address: expertsroster@un.org. For additional information, please contact: Ms. Dovile Petkunaite (petkunaite@un.org), Mr. Phillip Schell (schellp@un.org) and Mr. Grega Petek (grega.petek@un.org).

The decision regarding the inclusion of a nominee on the Roster will be made on the basis of demonstrated expertise, experience and educational background; those eligible for inclusion into the roster will be contacted directly by Secretariat staff. In selecting candidates for service on expert panels, the Secretariat will pay due regard to the principle of equitable geographic representation and gender balance.
