4. INFORMATION ON THE CONTENTS AND RESULTS GAINED4.1. Mode of study: Full time

4.2. Programme requirements: The Bachelor's Program in Law / Jurisprudence /Legal Science provides field components corresponding to 240 credits and consists of Basic Module and Specialization module. The Basic module comprises compulsory and optional/elective subjects, whereas specialization module comprises elective subjects only. The number of credits appertained to compulsory subjects doesn't exceed the half of the whole number of credits to be gained by the student. The non-juridical subjects (except for the English Language) are given no more than 24 credits. The teaching program doesn't foresee carrying out a research work or teaching practice. It is primarily designed for mastering the major profession - law and it doesn't give possibility of combining major and minor professions. The Bachelor's Program in Law aims to give students an insight into legal issues and equips them with all necessary skills for the implementation of the knowledge acquired. In addition, the students are given opportunity to become proficient in political, social, philosophical, historical and economic aspects of law.
